

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD BY THE MOOSE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Judge Roy Williams and District Deputy Miller Deliver Addresses

The annual memorial services of Hiawatha lodge, No. 824, Loyal Order of Moose, was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Vito theatre. A large crowd was present at the service.

Judge Roy H. Williams of Sandusky delivered the oration of the afternoon. His address was one of the finest ever heard in the city.

Since the institution of Hiawatha lodge, there have been 20 deaths of its members. Four have passed away during the past year. They were: George E. Gregory, Edward Griffin, Robert Franklin and Clinton G. Dowdell.

District Deputy Oscar Miller of Co-shocton was present at the service Sunday and delivered a short address.

Music for the occasion was furnished by a male quartet composed of Walter C. Burris, Clifford B. Shaw, George Wythe and Fred Burnett.

Two solos were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Elsie Stillwagon, with Mr. Carl K. Ferrell at the piano.

MAKE APPLICATION TO COUNTY AGENT

Applications for scholarships in the agricultural school of Ohio State university will now be received by County Agent S. L. Anderson, according to his statement this morning.

It is time that all those who desire to get in line for consideration this year should file their papers at the bureau offices so they can be investigated by the members.

Members of the Knox county farm bureau will act as the judges of the eligibility of the applicants. Those who are graduates from high schools will be given first preference.

MRS. PORTIA COLEMAN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Portia Wagner Coleman, wife of Clyde Coleman, and daughter of Mrs. George Wagner of Mt. Vernon, died at 5:40 Sunday evening at her home in Clarksburg, W. Va. Her death was due to blood-poisoning after an illness since last Thursday.

The deceased was 26 years of age and was born in Shelby, O. However, she removed with her parents to this city when quite young. Four years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Coleman. About a year ago, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman moved to Clarksburg, where Mr. Coleman is employed in the glass business.

Mrs. Coleman is survived by her husband, her mother, and the following brothers and sisters: George N. Wagner of Cleveland, Harry Wagner of Mt. Vernon, Gordon C. Wagner of Florida, and Mrs. Charles Doyle of Cleveland.

The remains will reach Mt. Vernon Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. Coleman and Mrs. George Wagner, the mother, who was at the bedside of her daughter when death came.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the home of Mrs. Wagner, East Hamtramck street, Rev. J. A. Long officiating. Interment in Mount View cemetery.

JACOB HEINRICH IS DEAD NEAR JELLOWAY

JELLOWAY, April 19—Jacob Heinrich, aged 73 years, died at 2 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Pore, who resides two miles north of this place, after several months' illness of diseases incident to advanced age.

Funeral services at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Lutheran church, with Rev. Burkholder officiating. Burial in the Lutheran cemetery.

ARREST PIPES ON AN ASSAULT CHARGE

Brothers-in-Law Engage In Fight And Arrests Follow Monday Morning

As a result of an exciting fistie encounter on South Main street late Saturday afternoon, Abe Pipes was arrested Monday morning by Sheriff Mosholder in Pleasant township on a charge of assault and battery.

The affidavit charging Pipes with assault and battery was made by B. F. Layland. The two men are brothers-in-law.

Trouble has existed between the two men for several years, it is said. On Saturday afternoon the men met on South Main street and the fight resulted. Layland was badly beaten up and was compelled to go to the office of a physician.

Pipes was scheduled to have a hearing before Magistrate George S. Harter at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

PUBLIC MEETING TO OCCUR THIS EVENING

Committees of the Chamber of Commerce, the city council, and from the city at large, will meet this evening in the council chamber in the city hall for the purpose of discussing the problems of flood prevention.

The meeting is called for 7 o'clock, and a full representation of members is desired.

City Engineer Phillips stated this morning that he would be present to confer with the men at this meeting.

WILL COMPLETE PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Members of Joe Hooker Post, No. 21, G. A. R., together with committees from all the affiliated organizations in the city, meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the G. A. R. hall for the purpose of completing the Decoration Day program. Committees will be named tonight. Every member of these organizations who has been named is requested to keep the hour of the meeting in mind and be on hand.

The American Legion will send its first representation to this meeting.

MRS. HARRY GALLIMORE DIES IN CLEVELAND, O.

Word was received here Sunday stating that Mrs. Hazel Gallimore, aged 33 years, wife of Harry Gallimore, died several days ago at her home in Cleveland, after several months' illness of tuberculosis of the spine. Mrs. Gallimore was formerly Miss Hazel Leach of this city. Burial was made in Cleveland.

Not insinuations, but news, in THE BANNER.

COUNTY GRANGERS MEET WITH PLEASANT

Fine Program Given Saturday Afternoon; Dinner Served At Noon

Over 200 Knox county Grangers gathered at the Pleasant grange hall Saturday for the regular Pomona meeting.

The meeting was opened at 10 a. m. by Worthy Master Purdy. After routine business had been transacted, the Fifth degree was conferred upon a class of 30. At the noon hour, all present enjoyed a sumptuous chicken dinner, served by the ladies of Pleasant grange.

The afternoon session was open to the public and the following program was rendered:

TRUCK DRIVERS MAKE APPEAL FOR HELP

The bad condition of the roads between Mt. Liberty and Bangs has almost stopped traffic. It is over this section of road that the two truck lines operated between Mt. Vernon and Columbus run.

President Kahrl of the Chamber of Commerce was asked by the truck companies this morning to see if he could not interest the organization in getting teams to assist the trucks across this stretch of road which is approximately one mile in length. There are 16 bad holes in this stretch. The business houses of the city are depending upon the truck lines for supplies now, and it is hoped that some means will be found for providing teams at this place to assist the trucks through the deep mud.

BRINGS REPLEVIN TO OBTAIN HIS CLOTHES

Replevin papers were necessary for Budd McPeck Saturday evening in order that he might enter his own house here in the city and get his Sunday clothes. There had been some family trouble and Mrs. McPeck had determined to keep her husband out of the house, so McPeck claimed. The papers were got out in Squire Harter's court, and served by Constable Purdy.

BIRTHS

A daughter was born Saturday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker of West Chestnut street.

STOCK ALL SOLD IN THE COUNTRY CLUB

Practically the only way at the present time for one to enter the Mt. Vernon Country club is to become a non-resident member. Secretary F. W. Kahrl has many applications on file now, but the stock in the company is all sold.

WOOSTER ROAD WILL BE IMPROVED TO LOUDONVILLE, OHIO

Will Be Graded and Bridge by Prison Labor The Coming Summer

County Surveyor Carl Van Voorhis stated Monday morning that the north end of the Wooster road from Amity, Knox county, to Loudonville, Ashland county, will be graded and bridged the coming summer by the force account plan. The work will be performed by prison labor and government equipment. Such was the information received from the state department by Surveyor Van Voorhis. This will be good news to the people of northern Knox county for it means that the Co-shocton road will be improved the entire distance from Mt. Vernon to Loudonville.

It is the expectation to grade and bridge the road this summer and then construct the pike next summer.

The road is either improved or under construction at the present time, from Mt. Vernon to Amity.

TAKES POSITION AT THE COURT HOUSE

Miss Pearl Donoghue of this city has accepted a position as clerk in the office of Probate Judge Wilkins for the next few weeks.

LEMON EXTRACT IS CAUSE OF FINE JAG

Sheriff Mosholder and Deputy Sheriff Lytle were called to Howard Saturday afternoon where one of the residents of the village, with a lemon-extract jag, was raising a disturbance. When searched, the man had several bottles of lemon extract in his pocket. The officers permitted the man to return to his home upon the promise that he would behave himself in the future.
